FIVE PERSONS HURT AS TRAINS COLLIDE ON LEVEE IN FOG

Wabash Passenger From Chicago Hits Rear C. & A. Coach; Train Hurled Through Door.

MISHAPS ALL OVER CITY

Driver Badly Hurt When Car Hits Wagon—Woman Injured in Car Collision.

The dense fog early Tuesday impeded traffic all over the city and county, causing a rear-end train collision at Main and Tyler streets, and a number of accidents to street cars and vehicles.

Five passengers were slightly injured in the train collision at 7:40 a. m., which delayed railroad traffic on the levee about 45 minutes. A Wabash train from Chicago, although running slowly, was making more progress than the Chicago & Alton train from Chicago and bumped into the rear of the C. & A. train. Both trains were running on a slow schedule because of the fog.

Passengers in the rear C. & A. coach, which was a combination diner and observation car, had a moment's warning of the impending collision by the flash of the electric headlight on the Wabash train. Many of them ran from the breakfast tables to the coach ahead.

Married Through Glass Door.
One passenger, it was said, was hurled through a glass door after another was jolted through a window. Those injured on the C. & A. train, all from Chicago, were S. L. Williams, 1248 First National Bank building, out; P. D. O'Brien, 8412 Boulevard, shaken up; and William T. Shaw, 886 King's place, shaken.

Wounded Officer of Detroit and Dr. H. H. Rutherford, of Chicago, who were Wabash passengers who were shaken up and bruised.

It was not necessary to call ambulances and little medical attention was needed. The first, the police knew of the collision, was when all the passengers began walking to Broadway and taking cars downtown from Tyler street. A patrolman obtained the names of the injured from a railroad watchman in charge of the Wabash train.

The Wabash train was in charge of Frank E. Jones of Danville, Ill., conductor, and John H. Harry of Cairo, Ill., engineer. The C. & A. train was in charge of Sidney Sutton, conductor, and John Kyger, engineer, of Bloomington, Ill.

An eastbound Meramec Highlands car, rounding a curve at Summit and Lockwood avenues in Webster Groves, in the fog, ran off the tracks at 4:15 a. m. and plowed into a curbing, demolishing a telephone building and a vacant one-story frame building on the corner.

J. G. Bohm of Maplewood, the motorist, said he stayed at his post and was unharmed, although the glass in the vestibule was shattered and hurled all about him. A. H. Kuhner of 3884 Dale avenue, the conductor, and J. G. Connor of 227 West avenue, Webster Groves, the only passenger, held to seats when they felt the car leave the tracks. Connor's thumb was dislocated.

An eastbound Page car, ran into a Union Dairy wagon at 8 o'clock, at Washington and Jefferson avenues. John E. Fisher of 311 Moffitt avenue, the driver, was thrown out and was picked up unconscious. He was carried into the Washington University Hospital, where physicians found his leg broken in two places and a number of contusions on the head. The wagon was wrecked.

A delivery wagon for the Teutenberg Bakery Co. was struck at 3:15 a. m. by an eastbound O'Fallon car, between Twelfth and Twenty-first streets. The driver, Thomas J. Clark of 160 Pine street, the driver, was thrown out, but was unharmed.

Two Homicide Cars Collide.
Two westbound Homicide cars collided at 11 a. m. in front of 253 Wash street and Mrs. Agnes Barnhart of 312 South Eleventh street, who was standing in the aisle of the first car, was thrown to the floor. She complained of an injury in her side, but refused medical attention. The first car, in charge of Mortimer C. J. Farrell of 628 Suburban avenue, had stopped at Farrell thought he had reached the crossing. Mortimer Henry Devinger of 607 Suburban avenue, in the charge of the car following, was unable to see the car in front until too late to stop.

Dr. Simon's Auto Damaged.
An automobile belonging to Dr. John H. Simon of 1201 McCausland avenue was found by the police Tuesday morning standing in front of the Union Station. A front wheel was broken.

Mrs. Simon said her husband, departed for Fulton, Mo., Monday night and his chauffeur, after taking him to the train, had gone riding and was caught in the fog. He ran into the curb and broke the wheel.

THE SUFFRAGIST'S WHITE HOUSE APPROACH.

"I had to tell a white lie this morning," said Jiggs.

"How was that?" asked Rags.

"My rich uncle came in from the East and I went over to the Relay Depot to meet him. As we crossed the Eads Bridge he looked over the car window and asked what that big structure was that spanned the river to the south of us."

"The Free bridge of course."

"Yes, but my uncle asked where the east approach was, and that's where I had to tell the lie. I said it was hidden from view by the fog."

"Well, you came mighty near telling the truth, at that."

Official forecast for St. Louis and vicinity: Fair tonight and Wednesday; much colder; the lowest temperature will be near 10 degrees.

BOY, 2, MAKES LONG TRIP BY PARCEL POST

Child Is Transported 25 Miles by Rural Route and on Train for 48 Cents.

WELLINGTON, Kan., Feb. 3.—Mrs. E. H. Halsey of this city received her 2-year-old nephew by parcel post today from his grandmother in Stratford, Ok., where he had been left for a visit three weeks ago.

The boy wore a tag about his neck showing it had cost 10 cents to send him through the mail. He was transported 25 miles by rural route before reaching the railroad. He rode with the mail clerks, shared his lunch with them and arrived here in good condition.

PATROLMAN SAYS HE FELL, SHOT MAN BY ACCIDENT

Louis Klausmeyer Is Wounded in Back When He Flees After Order to Halt.

CONDITION IS CRITICAL

Policeman Asserts Revolver Was Discharged When He Slipped on Icy Pavement.

Louis Klausmeyer, 25 years old, of 2810 North Twenty-second street, was shot in the back and seriously wounded by Patrolman Michael O'Connor of the Dayton Street Station at Farrar street and Natural Bridge avenue, at 1 a. m. Tuesday. The policeman declares the shooting was accidental.

Klausmeyer is in the city hospital, Edward Meinhardt, 23 years old, of 2808 West avenue, his companion at the time of the shooting, was arrested, pending an investigation of the circumstances of the shooting.

Klausmeyer was said to be in a critical condition at the city hospital, with the chances against his recovery.

Patrolman O'Connor, in a lengthy report to Capt. Singleton, said his attention was directed to Klausmeyer and Meinhardt when he saw them run toward him on Farrar street near Palm avenue, and then suddenly turn and run back into Natural Bridge avenue.

Slips, Revolver Is Discharged.
He said he called to them to halt and when they failed to heed his command, gave chase. The two men turned west into Natural Bridge avenue, with the patrolman close behind, the report says. O'Connor says as he turned the corner he drew his revolver, and then slipped and fell on his knee on the icy pavement. The revolver was discharged, and Klausmeyer dropped to the ground. The patrolman called a patrol wagon, and took Meinhardt to the station and Klausmeyer to the city hospital.

Meinhardt told the police he and Klausmeyer were running from O'Connor, because they mistook him for Patrolman Grogan of the Angelica Station.

He said Klausmeyer, himself and four companions had been singing in front of the saloon of Frank Zurnmuhlen, Glasgow and Bailey avenues, when they saw Patrolman Grogan approach. They dispersed in several directions.

Klausmeyer ran with him, Meinhardt said, with Grogan chasing them in and out of an alley near Farnell street and Broadway avenue. The chase led them into Farrar street near Natural Bridge avenue, where they ran into O'Connor, whom they mistook for Grogan, Meinhardt related. They turned and fled from him.

O'Connor has a good record and has seen long service in the department. In his report he mentions the complaint of a grocer who had been robbed and says he had this in mind when he gave chase.

Klausmeyer is a teamster and Meinhardt a concrete worker.

Former Congressman Confesses Smuggling.

L. N. Littauer and Brother Plead Guilty to Charge in Connection With Jewelry.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Lucius N. Littauer, a former Congressman, and William Littauer, his brother, both of Gloversville, N. Y., pleaded guilty in the Federal District Court to conspiracy to smuggle jewelry into this country.

Sentence was suspended. The Littauers in satisfaction of civil claims brought against them by the customs authorities in connection with the smuggling, paid the Government $10,000. The brothers were indicted on Feb. 27, on three counts. They were charged with attempting to evade the duty on a Venetian diamond and pearls and several other articles of jewelry valued at $40,000 and intended, it was said, for William Littauer's wife.

Lucius was accused of bringing the jewelry into the country concealed in a trunk and William of receiving them. The court's announcement that it would suspend sentence until tomorrow followed pleas by counsel for light punishment.

Oliver P. Langan Is Fined $50 as Speeder

Storage Man, Twice Before Convicted, Fails to Appear in Court.

Oliver P. Langan, president of the Langan & Taylor Storage and Moving Co., was fined $50 and costs by default by Judge Kimmel in Municipal Police Court Tuesday for speeding his automobile.

Langan was arrested Jan. 26 at Twenty-third and Locust streets by a motor cycle policeman. The policeman testified that Langan was driving 35 miles an hour.

Langan had been convicted of speeding twice before within the last year. He lives at 28 Oakwood avenue, Webster Groves.

150,000 CHICAGO WOMEN REGISTER; MAYOR'S WIFE ONE

Mrs. Carter Harrison, Husband and Three Servants Go to Same Polling Place.

AGES ARE FREELY GIVEN

Baby Stations Established by Suffragists; Special Nurses Provided for Homes.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Women registered today for the first time in Chicago preparatory to exercising their right of franchise at the spring aldermanic primaries.

Nearly 70,000 women had registered in the first five hours, and Chief Clerk Stuart of the Board of Election Commissioners predicts a further visiting several wards that at least 150,000 women would have registered before the polls close.

The polling places were unusually orderly and no smoking was generally the rule.

Upwards of 100,000 women, according to conservative estimates will have become registered voters by the time the books close at 9 p. m. Approximately 70 women assisted in registering the new voters.

Mayor Carter H. Harrison, his wife, Mrs. Edith Ogden Harrison and three household employees—a woman cook, a maid and a chauffeur, registered in a polling place in a basement in Barry avenue a short distance from their home in Sheridan Drive.

Mrs. Harrison Gives Age as 52.
Mrs. Harrison without hesitation declared she was 52 years old. The mayor acknowledged an additional year. All were sworn by a woman judge of election, Mrs. Mary L. Schultz.

In some of the strictly residential wards few women visited the polling places in the great houses, "Chicago by household duties," was the explanation given by the women clerks and judges of election.

"One woman found at the wash tub by an automobile scouting party, said: 'Sure, I'll go and register now, if you'll just finish this wash.' The men retreated. The woman said she would register later."

The first woman to register in one of the precincts of a North Side ward paid little attention to the ruling of the Election Commissioners that women might whisper their age to the polling place officials.

Women Freely Tell Ages.
"I have lived in Chicago all my life," she said.

"How long is that?" asked the election judge.

"Forty-three years," replied the new voter.

Reports from other polling places were that women were freely giving their ages.

Based their figures on the probable registration of 150,000 women, election officials predicted that Chicago's new registration will exceed New York's total. The previous Chicago registration was 47,544. The last New York registration was 69,123.

Nearly 50,000 women, organized under political parties, nonpartisan suffrage associations and women's clubs, worked to get the names of women on the registration lists.

"Baby stations," where mothers could leave their children while registering, were maintained in several wards. Mothers did not want to leave their babies at one of the nurseries were supplied with trained nurses, who watched over their households while they went to register.

WOMEN FAIL TO NAME WARDS THEY LIVE IN

Lack of Knowledge of Districts Hampers East Side Plans for Registration.

Because only half a dozen of the women knew what ward they lived in the Women's Civic Federation of East St. Louis, had difficulty Monday afternoon in perfecting their organization to work for a full registration of feminine voters for the spring election.

After consulting maps and defining boundary lines a captain was appointed for each of the eight wards. The captains will select committed women for the 43 precincts. The women will conduct a house-to-house canvass to make lists of the eligible women voters and urge them to register.

The captains appointed were Mrs. Robert J. Boylan, First Ward; Mrs. J. Wilbur, Second; Mrs. M. E. Mann, Third; Mrs. Fred H. Gunn, Fourth; Mrs. John F. Seymour, Fifth; Mrs. Willis J. Smith, Sixth; Mrs. S. Campbell, Seventh, and Mrs. J. W. Reed, Eighth.

ENGINEER FIRED FOR HALTING TRAIN TO BOMBARD CAT

Leaves Cab to Make Black Animal "Break the Spell" by Recrossing Tracks.

Peter Houseman of Alton has lost his job as engineer on the Illinois Terminal Railroad Co.'s passenger train between Edwardsville and Alton as a result of an accidental trip Monday. A Post-Dispatch reporter could not find Houseman Tuesday to get his version, but all along the line the story of an ill-omened black cat was told thus:

Houseman was engineer on train No. 61, westbound from Edwardsville to Alton. Everything was working well and the train was speeding along at about 30 miles an hour.

Suddenly a black cat sped across the track in front of the train. Houseman saw it. There was no chance of the cat being hit, for it cleared the track well ahead of the engine. Nevertheless, Houseman reversed, put on the air brake to the emergency and made a sudden stop.

When the surprised train crew and passengers looked from windows to find out the trouble they saw the engineer throwing snowballs into an osage hedge tree, wherein was perched the black cat.

"What are you doing?" inquired the conductor.

"This blamed cat ran across the track, and I've got to chase it back across again to break the spell," retorted Houseman, as he gathered fresh snowballs.

Soon he dismounted the cat, which fled back across the track. Whereupon the engineer, relieved in mind, climbed once more into the engine cab and the train proceeded to Alton.

It so happened that a company official was on the train. Houseman, on arrival, promptly got a "pink envelope" stating his services were no longer a matter of concern to the company.

SERGEANT DROPS COLORS AND 20 CENTS IN HOLD-UP

"Rookie!" With Whom He Was Going to Grocery Is Robbed of $9 by Highwayman.

Sgt. "Dick" Richards, 35 years old, of Company B, Jefferson Barracks, Iowa, first time in his long career as a soldier, Sgt. Richards, who faced the robber, and turned "about face" at the request of a robber with a revolver.

At 7 p. m. the Sergeant and John A. Anger, a recruit, who has been in the United States army only a month, started to Hain's grocery, which is some distance to the rear of the barracks. At a small ravine a man suddenly stepped out and cried: "Hold up your hands!"

After the hands of the Sergeant and the recruit were hoisted high enough the robber changed his tactics and made each search the other. The 32 of the recruit and 25 cents of the Sergeant were confiscated by the robber. Then the soldiers were made to "about face" and walk 15 paces with their hands aloft, during which time the robber disappeared.

PRESIDENT DECIDES TO PERMIT EXPORTATION OF ARMS TO MEXICO

Order, Which Will Let Rebels Get War Munitions Quickly, Expected to Bring Speedy Crisis.

SHIPMENTS TO BE RUSHED WHEN EMBARGO IS LIFTED

Huerta's Heavy Cannon Enables Him to Hold Cities—Gen. Villa Sends Word That Spaniards in Torreon Will Be Executed When Caught.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—President Wilson has decided to lift the embargo on exportation of arms to Mexico.

A proclamation under the authority of the congressional resolution of 1910, which will restore the status of the arms question to where both Huerta forces and Constitutionalists may import arms from the United States will be issued from the White House at 5 p. m. today, according to an authority which cannot be doubted.

The President is believed to have decided upon this move as his solution of the Mexican problem. His plan to permit the rebels to fully equip themselves is regarded here as one that will enable the Constitutionalists to bring the war against Huerta to a speedy crisis.

The lifting of the embargo, though it would allow both the Federal and Mexican rebels to import arms and ammunition from the United States, would give an advantage to the Constitutionalists since they control the northern part of the Mexican republic and would be able to get supplies from across the border much quicker than would Provisional President Huerta.

Embargo Showed Partiality.
It is believed President Wilson decided to raise the embargo after being convinced that by restricting shipments of arms to Mexico the United States was not really showing neutrality, which was the purpose of the embargo, but was in fact showing partiality, as the Huerta forces were enabled to get large supplies from abroad while the Constitutionalists were limited almost entirely to shipments from the United States and could get ammunition and arms only by smuggling.

It has been represented frequently to the administration in the progress of the Mexican negotiations that if the United States would permit free shipments of arms to Gen. Carranza, the Constitutionalists would undertake to restore peace in Mexico and set up a constitutional government within a short time.

It was understood in official circles that in the event of the President's determination to lift the embargo had gone forward to Charge O'Shaughnessy in Mexico City, probably with instructions to advise the Huerta Government.

Constitutionalist agents in Washington learned of the decision, and officially declared that the end of the war was in sight.

"One of the Last Resorts."
For many weeks Senators on the Foreign Relations Committee have been urging President Wilson to permit free importation of arms to the battlefields, in the hope that the war soon might be ended and peace restored. Those close to the President said all along that he would take such action as only one of the last resorts in his Mexican policy, preferring to depend for the time being on the "moral pressure" and the "financial blockade" which so far obtained.

The Huerta Government from obtaining credit abroad, that only recently it defaulted on the interest of the Mexican public debt. Meanwhile the armies of the Constitutionalists have been steadily marching on from victory to victory.

News of Plans Spreads.
News of the action about to be taken by President Wilson became known through sources which have been confidentially advised of the administration's policy in Mexico. It also became known that the subject had been discussed at the Cabinet meeting today.

The only word that came from the White House was that an important announcement would be made at 5 p. m. today. White House officials declined to divulge its nature.

There is every reason to believe that under the authority of the joint resolution of March 14, 1913, President Wilson will continue to search dispassionately for a speedy ending of the war.

President Tilted Issue of Armaments, which barred the exportation of arms to all sides on March 14, 1913. He did not allow the exportation of arms to any side in the Mexican civil war, which was then in its second year.

Tilt's proclamation was in part as follows: "I have found that there exists in Mexico such conditions of domestic violence as to make it inadvisable to permit the exportation of arms to any side in the Mexican civil war."

UNITED RAILWAYS WINS JEFFERSON AVENUE LINE SUIT

Judge Cave Holds Company Has
Right to Operate Cars on Street.

CASE IN COURT TWO YEARS

Corporation's Contention Against
Ouster Won on Franchise
Granted St. Louis Transit Co.

The United Railways' contention of its right to operate the Jefferson avenue line under existing franchises was upheld by a decision of Circuit Judge Rhodes E. Cave, Tuesday.

The decision is a defeat of the city's effort, by a quo warranto proceeding, to obtain a writ of ouster, on the ground that the Jefferson line franchise expired Feb. 4, 1911. The suit was brought almost two years ago. Arguments were heard by Judge Cave, in December, since which time he has had the case under advisement.

By his decision Judge Cave holds the United Railways is not entitled to operate the Jefferson line, as contended, under the Central Traction franchise, but that it is entitled to operate it under the St. Louis Transit Co. franchise, which will expire March 15, 1915.

Chief of Police
Judge Cave's opinion sets forth the steps by which the United Railways took over the Jefferson line. The fact is cited that the city, Feb. 4, 1911, by Ordinance 11,857, granted a 20-year franchise to the Jefferson Avenue Railroad Co. Under this franchise the line was operated until April 4, 1910, when Ordinance 15,047 was passed, making certain changes.

The two succeeding ordinances, which were cited as affecting the status of the franchise, were the Central Traction Co. Ordinance, No. 19,353, passed April 12, 1913, and the St. Louis Transit Co. Ordinance, No. 19,773, passed March 20, 1913.

This latter ordinance provided for the taking over by the St. Louis Transit Co., which later became the United Railways, of a number of connecting and intermediate lines, and provided for the extension of all franchises to the life of the longest, which was that of the Southern Electric Railroad Co.

Jefferson Line Included.
Judge Cave held that, while the Jefferson line was not included in the Central Traction franchise, it was nevertheless a connecting line. The decision reads in part:

"Thus heralded into the lists and put to the combat for the right of its existence, in so far as its Jefferson avenue branch is concerned, the defendant comes both doubly armed, to wit: claiming the right to operate under both Ordinance 19,353, known as the Central Traction, expiring April 12, 1914, and Ordinance 19,773, known as the St. Louis Transit, expiring March 15, 1915; and proclaiming that even should its outer armor prove too weak and old to avail, yet in no event can the point of query—what right of the relator penetrate its inner coat of mail and reach the vital of its right to continue the operation of the Jefferson avenue line until March 15, 1915."

MAYNARD, a girl who seems almost to be a part of the case, is shown in a photograph from the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Feb. 3, 1914.

ence promoted by the use of arms or munitions of war, procured from the United States as contemplated by the joint resolution and I hereby admonish all citizens of the United States and every person to abstain from every violation of the provisions of the joint resolution above set forth hereby made applicable to Mexico.

Coming at the end of nearly a year of warfare which was marked by the killing of President Madero and Vice-President Huerta, after the street battles in Mexico City, the raising of the embargo is the climax of months of strained relations with Mexico, during which President Wilson has reiterated that the United States would not recognize the provisions of the armistice of Victoriano Huerta under any circumstances, and has repeatedly stated that the United States could recognize only a government of Mexico.

Tobacco Habit Easily Conquered

A well-known New Yorker of wide experience has written a book telling how the tobacco or snuff habit may be easily and completely banished in three days with delightful results.

The health improves wonderfully. The nicotine poison is out of the system. Calmness, tranquility, sleep, clear eyes, normal appetite, good digestion, strong memory and a general gain in efficiency are among the many benefits reported. No more of that nervous feeling; no more need of pipe, cigar, cigarette or chewing tobacco to pacify the throat desire. The author, Rev. J. W. Hall, 2225 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo., will mail his book free.

Free Bridge Primer

1. Who selected the Reber approach?
ANSWER: It was selected by the Board of Public Improvements and unanimously approved by a committee of expert, impartial, disinterested engineers.

2. Do we own the Reber approach?
ANSWER: Yes, we have condemned and bought $140,000 worth of land for it, which we own.

3. Can we build any other approach?
ANSWER: The City Counselor has advised the Municipal Assembly that we have not the lawful power to condemn any more land for any other approach.

4. Will the Reber approach be used?
ANSWER: Yes, because of its convenient location it can be used by all the railroads to bring new trade and prosperity to St. Louis.

5. Is the Reber approach a good approach?
ANSWER: Yes, it is the shortest, freest, most convenient and cheapest approach.

6. Cannot the Reber approach be bottled by the Terminal Association?

ANSWER: No, because the United States Supreme Court says the tracks and bridges of the Terminal must be kept open to all roads that want to use them. If they cannot bottle their own bridges, they cannot bottle the city's free bridge.

7. Has not the Reber approach $2,750,000 bond issue been defeated three times?

ANSWER: Yes, but it got a big majority of the votes cast and only fell short of the two-thirds majority necessary to carry a bond issue.

What reason is there for believing it would pass now?
ANSWER: The United States Supreme Court decision, which opens the Terminal's facilities to all roads, has removed the argument which did most to defeat the three bond issues. The bridge cannot be bottled.

9. What will the A. & M. plan cost?

ANSWER: Either $4,250,000 or $7,000,000.

10. What will the Reber approach cost?

ANSWER: $2,750,000.

11. Where will the A. & M. approach end?

ANSWER: In St. Clair County, 20 miles away.

12. What is the nature of the A. & M. plan?

ANSWER: It is admittedly a speculative real estate grab.

ANSWER: The House of Delegates should join the Council in submitting to the public a $2,750,000 Reber approach bond issue and let the public decide.

those governments which were founded on "law and order." Repeated exchanges of diplomatic notes, in which the United States plainly demanded the retirement of Huerta, were met with replies which denied the right of the United States to make such demands. The resignation of Henry Lane Wilson as Ambassador to Mexico, which had preceded most of the diplomatic negotiations, had surrounded the whole situation with a great deal of delicacy.

After repeated exchanges, during which the foreign Powers, even those which had recognized the Government of Huerta, consented to let the United States take the lead, President Wilson went to Congress and eventually secured an address on Aug. 27, 1913, disclosing the entire correspondence with Senor Gumbos, the Mexican Minister of Foreign Affairs, and reiterating his belief that with a policy of "watchful waiting" on behalf of the United States the reign of Huerta must crumble.

President Wilson's Embargo.
His position on the embargo on arms at that time was outlined by President Wilson in his address, as follows:

"I deem it my duty to exercise the authority conferred upon me by the law of March 14, 1913, to see to it that neither side to the struggle now going on in Mexico receives any assistance from this side of the border. I shall follow the best practice of nations in the matter of neutrality, by forbidding the exportation of arms or munitions of war of any kind from the United States to any part of the republic of Mexico—a policy suggested by several intervening precedents and certainly dictated by many manifest considerations of practical expediency. We cannot in the circumstances be the partisans of either party to the contest, that now distracts Mexico, nor constitute ourselves a virtual umpire between them."

Following that declaration the bans of all exports of arms and ammunition were put up tighter than ever and the neutrality of the border patrol was increased. The execution of that policy, however, the President now believes, has been to create inequality instead of neutrality.

While President Taft's proclamation was intended to stop exports of arms to the revolutionists who were hampered still allowed the export of arms to the Madero Government, by permit. When the Huerta Government came into power it continued for a short time to import arms from the United States under the permits which had been issued to the Madero Government, but that soon was stopped and the embargo has been complete for months, with the exception of occasional cases of smuggling.

Senators Indorse President's Plan.
Senator Hitchcock, one of the Democrats, when informed of the President's decision, said: "I think that lifting the embargo is the wisest thing to do. There is no question but what the embargo has been operating unfairly. Some members of the committee have been of the opinion that this course would be the better part of wisdom. They believe it will hasten an end to the Mexican conflict and lead sooner than otherwise to the establishment of peace. Of course, the time has not come for the Government to recognize the Constitutionalists as belligerents."

Senator Borah of Idaho, who urged that the embargo be lifted as far back as last August, said that many other members of the Foreign Relations Committee had come to that same conclusion since that time.

A Sale of Housemate "Certified" Vibrator Machines

We have just seventeen Housemate "Certified" Vibrator Sewing Machines that have been used as showroom samples and for demonstrating their stitching qualities and attachments.

They are really better in smooth running than machines that have never been used. Some may have a scratch or two on the woodwork, which, of course, is an unimportant drawback.

These machines will be sold, while they last, at the following prices:
Sale prices $24.75, $27.50 and up to $39.00
Formerly priced at $35.00 to $55.00
You may buy one of these machines on our easy-payment plan of $1.00 at the time the machine is sent to your home and $1.00 a week until complete payment has been made.

Other Special Bargains in Machines
In addition to the machines listed above, we have some very excellent values in other makes, such as the White, Singer, Davis, etc., and you may rest assured that we have marked them at prices low enough to induce quick buying.
All are guaranteed and free sewing lessons will be given to each purchaser in her own home.

RIVAL HAITIEN REBELS FIGHT; 300 ARE KILLED

Gen. Zamor Defeats Senator Theodore in Battle and Proclaims Himself President.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Feb. 2.—Three hundred men of the rival revolutionaries were killed in their battle at Gonaves, according to advices received here today. The adherents of Senator Davillone Theodore were finally defeated by the followers of Gen. Oreste Zamor, the former Government Delegate at Cape-Haitien. Senator Theodore and his men were driven back in a northerly direction to Plaisance on the road to Cape-Haitien.

Gen. Zamor today proclaimed himself chief executive of the republic. Carlos Zamor, Government Delegate at Gonaves, assisted his brother in the battle, and Gen. Desormes fought by his side. Fire broke out in the city of Gonaves during the battle. Fifteen houses were destroyed, but no foreign property was damaged.

The reduction of the term of the Southern Traction Co.'s loop franchise from 30 years to 25 years.

The return of President Sam Lasarus of the City Council is expected to expedite both of these propositions. At its meeting Friday night the Council turned down a proposition to appoint a joint committee, but it is believed that this was done to await the return of President Lasarus.

Lasarus for Reber Approach.

The Council members desire that three Councilmen who are staunch supporters of the Hines bill, which provides for a public vote on a $1,750,000 bond issue, should be named on their committee. As Lasarus has always been a strong supporter of the Hines bill, and the Reber approach, the Council felt that its committee would be more likely to stand firmly for these projects if appointed by President Lasarus than by Vice-Chairman Randall, who voted for the Alton & Mississippi grab at the last meetings of the Council.

Lasarus said that he had not had an opportunity to discuss the free bridge situation with the other members of the Council, but would meet them during the afternoon and try to get matters under headway so that progress could be made on the bridge question.

It is understood that the City Hall, the House of Delegates will consent to the appointment of a joint committee, and that it will name three strong advocates of the Alton & Mississippi $1,750,000 scheme.

Each committee will report to its own body. There is some hope on the part of Mayor Kiel, who has announced that he is determined to stand for the Hines bill, and the Council, that the House of Delegates will yield to the strong public demand for the completion of the bridge, and vote to submit the $1,750,000 bond issue.

WOMEN SUBJECT TO KIDNEY TROUBLES

I beg to say that I have been a constant sufferer with severe pains in my back and was on the verge of nervous prostration, resulting from kidney trouble and other complications. A friend of mine recommended Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as a sure cure for these troubles. Acting upon her advice I began taking Swamp-Root and began to improve before I had finished the first bottle. I continued its use until I had taken several bottles and continued to improve until I was completely cured. I am happy to say that I am as well as any woman on earth and have been so for the past nine years, thanks to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and I cheerfully recommend it to all who suffer from kidney troubles.

Very truly yours,
MRS. ALVA BAXTER,
407 Cypress St.,
Orange, Texas.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of March, 1912.

How to Have Red Lips!

The girl with red lips and pink cheeks may be thankful, for both denote health—vigorous, forceful, magnetic health, and while it may be impossible for some to attain owing to morbid states or health, yet a vast majority of seemingly healthy young women and men are almost colorless, because of a lack of red blood corpuscles. When the blood is improved and enriched with these red corpuscles, the weight increases and a beautiful tint appears on the cheeks, while the lips assume a healthy red color. Many physicians and beauty doctors prescribe three-grain hypochloride tablets which are said to invariably increase the red blood corpuscles after a course of treatment lasting several months. The nervous system and general health also improve rapidly. The best physicians and apothecary shops supply this tablet in sealed packages.—ADVERTISMENT.

COUNCIL TO DECIDE QUESTION OF JOINT BRIDGE CONFERENCE

Proposal to Reduce Life of Loop Franchise to 25 Years Also Comes Up Today.

Two propositions to advance the plans for the completion of the free bridge will be taken up by the City Council Tuesday afternoon. They are: Consideration of the appointment of a joint committee of the House of Delegates and the Council to work out a plan for submitting a free bridge bond issue to the people.

The reduction of the term of the Southern Traction Co.'s loop franchise from 30 years to 25 years.

The return of President Sam Lasarus of the City Council is expected to expedite both of these propositions. At its meeting Friday night the Council turned down a proposition to appoint a joint committee, but it is believed that this was done to await the return of President Lasarus.

Lasarus for Reber Approach.

COMPROMISE PLANS PROPOSED IN B. M. L.

Several Members Favor Submitting Bridge Bond Issue Without Specifying the Approach.

In advance of a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Business Men's League at 2 p. m. Tuesday, Richard S. Hawes, League's Membership Conference Committee, told a Post-Dispatch reporter that a number of members of the organization favor a compromise plan by which a bond issue might be submitted to the people without calling voters' endorsement of any specific side free bridge approach. This proposition, if approved at the Executive Committee meeting, will be put forward at the membership conference dinner to be held at the Mercantile Club Wednesday. All members of the Municipal Assembly have been invited to the dinner.

The Membership Conference Committee of the league has placed itself on record as favoring the Reber approach. The plan, as outlined by Hawes, is to submit to the people a proposition to issue bonds for the general purpose of completing the bridge, with a proviso that the money may be spent to erect any approach which may be selected by a commission of skilled and disinterested out-of-town engineers.

It has been suggested by members of the league that a $3,000,000 bond issue be submitted. If the engineers, after the election, should report in favor of a more expensive approach another bond election would be necessary.

Hawes says that those who favor the compromise plan believe that any qualified commission of engineers would report in favor of the Reber approach; and a second election would not be necessary.

BRYAN DISCUSSES NEW TREATY WITH COLOMBIA

Meets Minister From Republic; Believes Convention Will Soon Be Agreed Upon.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—After another conference today with Senator Buchanan, the Colombian Minister, Secretary Bryan was encouraged to believe that a new treaty between the United States and Colombia could be agreed upon soon and submitted for the approval of the Senate.

In its present form the convention provides for acquisition by the United States of coaling privileges on the Colombian coast; exclusive right to construct a canal through Colombian territory connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans; and payment to Colombia of a lump sum believed to be $5,000,000.

A THOUSAND UMBRELLAS

In a Remarkable Sale Wednesday

It's a dollar sale, but you would never expect to obtain such Umbrellas for so small an amount. We went to a maker with whom we regularly place large orders—we proposed to afford him an outlet for the handles left on his hands from the Christmas selling.

We chose the handles we wanted—we had him make to our order men's and women's Umbrellas, using these handles. We picked covering of American taffeta and union taffeta silks that we can guarantee absolutely rainproof. We stipulated that all these Umbrellas must be made standard throughout.

Mainly $1.50 to $3.00 Values

The women's are the long handled Umbrellas now so popular, with gold and pearl trimmed posts and hand-carved posts, among them being hand-carved ebony posts suited to carry with the mourning dress. The men's are in opera, Prince of Wales, hook handle styles, etc., in plain and sterling silver effects. They are, indeed, extraordinary Umbrellas to obtain at only.

THE FEBRUARY LINEN SALE IS ON!

This is our greatest February Linen Sale! It offers values that no other store in America can offer you except those that sent their buyer abroad months ago as we did. There is a reason for this and you but have to recall the recent tariff change to appreciate it. As you might expect an uncertainty existed among foreign makers prior to this time and our buyer met with an eager welcome at their mills, receiving offers that would never have been possible had we placed our orders through wholesalers and jobbers. We cannot duplicate these special offerings—no other store in St. Louis can match them.

Choice of All Sizes for Women, Young Women and Growing Girls

There is

Margaret Weeks White Family. When the family of Henry F. White, 21 Windermere place, was at dinner Monday evening a porch climber got into two rooms on the second floor and stole a gold watch, stickpin and 65 cents. The family was discovered when a member of the family went upstairs and found the front window overlooking the porch open.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR AND ITCHING SCALP—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save your hair! Danderine destroys dandruff and stops falling hair at once—Grows hair and we can prove it.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine now will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—ADV.

DROPS GARDINER SUIT

Court Dismisses Divorce Case Because Plaintiff Is Absent.

The divorce petition of William W. Gardiner, a dentist, filed in Clayton Dec. 24, was dismissed Tuesday, by order of Judge Wurdeman. When the case was called, neither Gardiner nor his attorney, A. E. L. Gardiner, were in court. Attorney Louis Mayer, representing Mrs. Gardiner, who filed an answer denying all charges made by her husband, asked the Court to dismiss the petition. The Court said he would wait an hour. Mayer called Attorney Gardiner and he said he had no objection to the Court's dismissing the case. He said his client did not put in an appearance and he did not know where he was.

REPUBLICANS TO TEST NONPARTISAN JUDICIARY LAW

Garesche's Nomination for Judge Under Old System Thrown Out by Election Board.

Plans of the Republican City Committee to attack the constitutionality of the nonpartisan judiciary law enacted by the Legislature were divulged Tuesday when City Attorney Vital W. Garesche filed with the Board of Election Commissioners a declaration to run for one of the Republican nominations for Circuit Judge at the primary next August. Garesche followed the old law in filing his declaration. This was rejected by the unanimous vote of the three Election Commissioners sitting when it was presented—Drabelle, May and Wright, Commissioner Buder, Republican, being absent.

Garesche announced that the Republican City Committee had employed George B. Webster as counsel to file a mandamus suit against the Board of Election Commissioners to compel it to accept his declaration. Garesche said he was acting at the instance of the Republican organization, which had decided to test the legality of the new law.

Law Provides Convention. The new law provides that judicial nominations shall be made in one of two ways: By a convention comprised of delegates from all parties casting three per cent or more of the vote for Governor at the last preceding election, or by petitions signed by 5 per cent of the voters.

Under the convention plan each party would be entitled to one delegate from each ward for each 100 votes, or fraction thereof, cast for Governor at the last election.

A convention held in conformance to that law would be comprised of 76 Democratic delegates, 64 Republican, 33 Progressive and 23 Socialist, making in all 200 delegates.

The law provides that not more than one-half of the judicial nominees shall be selected from any one party, but that when an odd number is to be selected, the odd candidate may be selected from any party. The candidates of the convention are to be nominated by the tickets of all participating parties at the general election.

As three candidates are to be nominated this year, to fill the vacancies to be caused by the expiration of the terms of Judges Hinchey and McQuinn, the Republican organization, according to Garesche, feared that it would be unable, under the non-partisan law, to get more than one Judge.

Feared a Disadvantage. The Democrats and Progressives, by combining their strength would have 109 votes in the convention, as against 52 by the combined forces of the Republicans and Socialists. As the Democrats and Progressives have shown an inclination to work in harmony in city politics, the Republicans feared they might gain an advantage in the judicial nominations if the law was not declared unconstitutional.

The Republicans hope to get a decision from the Supreme Court before the time expires for filing nominations under the old primary law.

WASHINGTON U. FACULTY IS BURNED IN EFFIGY

Crowd of 800 Watches Students Celebrate; Alarm Brings Out Fire Department.

Washington University students kept University City residents awake the early part of Monday night by burning a composite effigy of the faculty at a big bonfire at Siskier road and Forsyth boulevard in celebration of the end of the mid-year examinations.

Students estimated there were 800 in the crowd which assembled on the quadrangle at 9:30 p. m. The Lock and Chain Society carried a long black coffin, in which was a dummy marked "Faculty." Funeral services were held under the main archway of University Hall, after which six pallbearers carried the coffin to the fire, to the accompaniment of boo-hoos and cat calls by the "mourners."

Coeds, standing in their sleeping garments and protected by wraps and blankets, watched part of the proceedings from balconies at McMillan Hall, the girls' dormitory.

The students then held a shirt-tail parade, in which all participants also rolled up their trousers to the knees. Someone turned in a false alarm and the University City department responded.

"WHY SHOULD I WORRY?" when Lottis Brock turned in a false alarm, will give him credit for the diamond engagement ring.

ONLY WOMEN SCULPTORS IN FOUNTAIN CONTEST

Competition for Design for the Central Public Library Sunken Garden.

Only women sculptors are to compete in the designing of the fountain to be placed in the sunken garden, at Thirteenth and Locust streets, behind the Central Public Library. Artists are the Central Public Library.

Mrs. Margaret Kincaid, wife of Dr. Kincaid of Louisiana, Mo. died Dec. 26, 1912, and left $4000 in her will for the fountain, to be placed in the library sunken garden.

The will said nothing about limiting the contest to women, but the officers of the St. Louis Union Trust Co., executors of the trust created by the will, decided that such a restriction would be suitable, and they instructed Victor S. Holm, instructor in the School of Fine Arts, to draw up rules for a competition which should be for women only.

The rules prepared by Holm require that the fountain shall be of bronze and granite, and that it shall be a part of the building, which it is to stand.

WIFE WHO KILLED HER HUSBAND IS PLACED ON TRIAL

Woman Who Shot W. P. Roberts at Reconciliation Party to Plead Emotional Insanity.

The impaneling of a jury for the trial of Mrs. Emily C. Roberts, charged with murder in the second degree for shooting and killing her husband, William P. Roberts, at a reconciliation party at the home of her son, William P. Roberts Jr., 240 North Nineteenth street, March 26, 1913, began Tuesday in Judge Jones' division of the Criminal Court.

At a Coroner's inquest Mrs. Ada Roberts, daughter-in-law, had testified that her husband's parents had been separated but became reconciled, in celebration of which a party was given. Roberts, she testified, taunted his wife by narrating alleged conquests of other women.

Finally, she said, Mrs. Emily Roberts declared she could stand it no longer, obtained a revolver from an adjoining room, and returning, shot her husband through the head. William P. Roberts Jr. corroborated the testimony of his wife.

Mrs. Emily Roberts testified that her husband had abused her for 23 years. She became hysterical at the inquest and faintly three times.

Charles F. Johnson, attorney for Mrs. Roberts, will offer emotional insanity in defense of the charge and will endeavor to prove that Roberts' stories of conquests of other women gradually placed Mrs. Roberts in a mental condition that made her temporarily unaccountable.

Premeditation Is Charged. The prosecution will be conducted by Circuit Attorney Harvey, who will endeavor to show that murder was premeditated; that Mrs. Roberts purchased the revolver the day before the killing and had planned to end her husband's life.

Five Damages Barrel Warehouse. The Clarence Lime and Cement Co.'s storehouse for empty barrels at 1400 South Vandeventer avenue was damaged $800 by fire, at 6 a. m. Tuesday.

ACID STOMACHS ARE DANGEROUS

Nine-tenths of All Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity.

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure of stomach and intestinal diseases have earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach, which in turn was due, nine times out of ten, to excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach, or heartburn, which not only irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, but also sets up gastritis and stomach ulcers. It is interesting to note that he condemns the use of patent medicines as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have secured remarkable results by the use of ordinary biassed magnesia, which neutralizes the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be for a man who stepped on a tack to rub the foot with alcohol, instead of removing the tack. He said that the stomach is a very delicate organ, and that it is not to be treated with harsh remedies, but that it should be treated with the most delicate and refined medicines, and that the stomach should be treated with the most delicate and refined medicines, and that the stomach should be treated with the most delicate and refined medicines.

CITY REPLIES TO BILLBOARDS SUIT FOR AN INJUNCTION

Affidavits of McKelvey and Police Captains Filed Tell of Danger of Boards.

ARGUMENT ON WEDNESDAY

Attorneys for Poster Advertising Co. Obtain Day to Consider Allegations.

The city's reply to the suit of the St. Louis Poster Advertising Co., in which the United States District Court was asked to grant an injunction to restrain city officials from destroying the company's illegal billboards, was filed with Judge Dyer, Tuesday, by City Counselor Edgar and Assistant Counselor Young.

Frank C. Early and Matt G. Reynolds, representing the company, asked for a day's time to consider the city's allegations, and the argument was therefore set for Wednesday morning.

The document filed in the city's behalf was accompanied by affidavits from Building Commissioner McKelvey and Police Captains Reynolds and Johnson, setting forth reasons why the existing billboards were a source of danger to the public and were potentially a nuisance.

Question of Jurisdiction.

McKelvey said the boards, braced behind but never in front, by posts or "dead men," were likely to be blown over in seasons when the rain softened the soil and high winds blew.

The Police Captains said the boards were sometimes used as places of concealment, or means of escape, by highwaymen, and cited other ways in which they tend to be a nuisance and an aid to disorderly practices.

Judge Dyer remarked that the question of jurisdiction would be one of prime importance. The company's petition for an injunction did not show any definite reason for appealing to the Federal court rather than to a State court.

Plenty of Time to Comply.

The city set up, in its reply, that the present ordinance had been in the statute books since April 7, 1905, and that the company had plenty of time to comply and thus to protect itself in its content relations. Instead the city said, the company had chosen to defy the city.

The city also denied, as alleged in the injunction suit, that there was a standardization of billboards prevailing among the large cities and generally accepted by them. It was denied that the ordinance of 1905 was oppressive or discriminatory.

It is charged that the St. Louis Poster Advertising Co. is controlled by the St. Louis Gunning Advertising Co., which failed, in the State Supreme Court, to obtain an injunction against the enforcement of the ordinance, and that P. J. McAllister, vice-president of the Gunning Co., who figured in that proceeding, is also the signer of the present petition.

CAUCUS OF DEMOCRATS IN HOUSE ON SUFFRAGE

Question of Reversing Position on Votes for Women Committee to Be Taken Up.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Following the report of several hundred working women at the White House yesterday and President Wilson's denial of their plea, a caucus of Democrats in the House of Representatives was held today to determine whether the recent unfavorable action of the Rules Committee on the proposal to create a committee on woman suffrage should be reversed.

The President has expressed himself as a member of the Rules Committee as in favor of such a committee. He told the women callers yesterday, however, that he could not dictate to his party on the suffrage question as the Democrats as a party had taken no stand on the matter.

Most of the arguments presented by the women to the President revealed the aim of the women to correct industrial conditions with the ballot as a legislative instrument. The President has told his friends that social justice should be administered by the United States Government in all its branches regardless of the merits of the suffrage movement.

MESSANGER BOY TO GET $200,000, BRIDE'S ESTATE

DURHAM, N. C., Feb. 8.—Sylvanus Gray of Durham, when employed six months ago as a messenger boy by the Western Union Telegraph Co., was sent with a telegram for Miss Lela Johnson of Lynchburg, Va., who was visiting in West Durham, Gray, who is 18, declares the moment he saw Miss Johnson he knew it was a case of love.

With the young woman it was apparently the same.

Before the messenger boy left the house they arranged to be married, although they had never seen one another prior to that meeting.

A few days later the young woman came to this city from her home in an automobile, called Gray by telephone and they met and were married.

After riding around for several hours in the machine, Mrs. Gray bade her husband keep the marriage secret and went back home. Gray heard no more from her until he received a telegram five months later, stating she was dying, and bidding him to come to Lynchburg immediately.

Since Mrs. Gray's death, it has developed she was an heiress to $200,000, the legacy of an uncle who has since died. Through the will of Mrs. Gray, all her property reverts to her husband, the former messenger.

100-PIECE BAND, CHORUS OF 1000 FOR THE PAGEANT

William W. La Beaume Tells of Plans for Music at Spectacle in May.

A band of 100 pieces, twice the usual size of large concert bands, will furnish the music for the pageant and masque of St. Louis, to be held in May in Forest Park.

Choruses of 100 to 1000 voices, or more, will give the vocal music. A choir of 100 boy sopranos, to be taken in part from churches which use boy singers, will be a feature of this chorus.

These details as to music were announced by William W. La Beaume, who returned Sunday from an Eastern tour, during which he conferred with Frederic Converse of Boston, who is composing the music for the masque. The masque, which will be symbolic in character, and will be presented by artificial light, will employ music to a greater extent than the pageant, which will show actual scenes from the history of St. Louis, and will be given by daylight.

31 Members in Masque.

As explained by Converse to La Beaume, the masque music will consist of a suite of 31 numbers. Besides furnishing the version to be used by the outdoor band of wind instruments, Converse will issue an edition of the music for symphony orchestras, and this music, coming from a composer of Converse's standing, will be widely played in concerts of the highest class, and will be credited, wherever presented, to the "Masque of St. Louis."

While in the East La Beaume also conferred with Percy MacKaye, who is writing the masque. He says that if MacKaye had not been engaged when he was in St. Louis, would have been unable to get his services. Since the striking success of his play, "A Thousand Years Ago," now running in New York, MacKaye has been in great demand as a playwright, but he has declined to undertake new work.

La Beaume says, until he has finished his work for St. Louis. Three other works of MacKaye, "Jeanne d'Arc," the bird masque and the "Canterbury Pilgrims," are to have productions this season, and the bird masque is to be produced in London.

Reputation Insures Interest.

"There is no question that MacKaye has arrived," said La Beaume, "and St. Louis is doubly fortunate in having obtained his services, not only because he is sure to do a splendid piece of work for us, but because his reputation will insure us, in advance, the active interest of persons of artistic appreciation throughout the country."

"The Pageant and Masque of St. Louis is sure to be recognized throughout the country as the biggest public event of 1914. Already Boston has practically decided to have a pageant in 1915, and the chief thing for which Boston will strive will be to surpass the St. Louis Pageant, which, the Boston people recognize, will be the greatest event of its kind ever staged."

"Some of those with whom I talked in New York and Boston, and who expressed confidence in the success of St. Louis' undertaking, were Gus Thomas, Harrison Grey Fleke, Owen Johnson and Will Irwin."

OTTO, THE HERMIT TRAIL BUILDER, DIVORCES ARTIST

He Gets Decree From Beatrice Farnham Who Went West to Paint Indian Figures.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., Feb. 8.—Judge Sullivan has granted a divorce to John Otto, the hermit of Monument Canyon, from Beatrice Farnham-Otto, artist and sculptress of Boston, on the ground of desertion.

The romantic marriage of the Boston artist to the hermit trail builder of the Western slope of the Rockies in June, 1911, attracted much attention throughout the East. The couple were married in beautiful Monument Park, four miles southwest of Grand Junction.

Immediately after their marriage the Boston girl and her naturalist husband made their way to the summit of an immense elevation known as Independence Rock, where they went through a ceremony of their own.

It was the dream of Miss Farnham two years and a half ago, when she went to Grand Junction from her Boston studio, to paint Indian figures and mountain scenes. Her plans were almost realized when fate brought about the meeting between her and Otto.

She was fascinated by the manner and ways of a character entirely new to her, and, after a few weeks' ardent courtship, they were married.

The marital experience of the Ottos soon terminated, and Miss Farnham departed for Boston. At that time Otto said they had not been able to agree and that a mutual understanding had been reached, which provided for a five years' trial separation, at the end of which period he was to obtain a divorce if the bride did not care to return. It developed a few weeks ago that Otto filed a secret divorce action almost immediately on her departure. The proceedings were not contested.

EATING MEAT REGULARLY CLOGS THE KIDNEYS, CAUSING PAINS IN THE BACK

Don't fail to flush your Kidneys occasionally with a tablespoonful of harmless fruit Salts to avoid danger.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. SWIMMER KAISER MAY BE RESTORED TO GOOD STANDING Suspended Athlete May Be Whitewashed by A. A. U. in Time for M. A. C. Meet.

Denver Swimmer Is Now on M. A. C. Team

ONE of the recent and valuable additions to the M. A. C. swimming squad is Harry Bartels, who for several years represented the Denver Natatorium in meets of national importance. Bartels has made St. Louis his permanent place of abode and will compete regularly for Tom Whitaker's squad.

Bartels, just now, is not in shape to do himself justice. However, he has the machine and under Whitaker's watchful eye should develop into a star. He competed here several times as a representative of the Denver club, showing at LaSalle's Lake when the national championships were held there a few years back. He probably will swim on the M. A. C. relay team against the C. A. A. four Saturday night.

By W. J. O'Connor.

Through the efforts of members of the Missouri Athletic Club who are being assisted by President Theodore Bland of the Western division of the A. A. U., William Kaiser, who for two years had the American record in the plunger, may soon be reinstated to good standing in amateur aquatic circles. Just now Kaiser is serving a life sentence for competing under an assumed name in an unsanctioned meet. He was suspended by James E. Sullivan of the A. A. U., on recommendation of the Western association, two years ago. Attempts are being made to have Kaiser reinstated immediately. If his case is won before James E. Sullivan, to whom appeal has been made, he will probably be eligible Saturday night to compete against Lichter, the renowned plunger of the Chicago A. A., who will be seen here in the dual meet between the C. A. A. and the M. A. C.

That Kaiser's case will be won, is the hope of everybody at the M. A. C. He has been under the ban for two years, having competed in the fall of 1931 in an unsanctioned meet in Memphis, under an assumed name. Kaiser never denied a charge of pleading ignorance of the rules.

Affair Just a Lark

There were mitigating circumstances that favored Kaiser in this crime against the amateur code. One was that he did not transgress for monetary gain, because he is wealthy in his own name. He has no reason to be either a "pot hunter" or a mercenary athlete. His offense, as he admitted at the time, was more of a lark than a crime against the stringent A. A. U. rules. His friends argue that the humiliation of being suspended and the fact that he has borne his sentence with sufficient punishment. They feel that he should be taken back into the good graces of the amateur body.

Kaiser, without doubt, is one of the greatest plungers in the country. Before his suspension he held the American record, made in competition, of 78 ft. 6 in. He also had an unofficial record of 80 feet in 35 seconds, having swum the length of the M. A. C. pool in five seconds under the time allowance in a practice trial. His American record was broken after his suspension by William Wilks, the University of Pennsylvania star.

If Kaiser should get back into the amateur ranks by Saturday night he will be considered a sure point-winner against the C. A. A. He has a big edge on Lichter, according to some.

Hard Meet for M. A. C.

The dual meet with the C. A. A. promises to be a severe test for the M. A. C. squad. Kenneth Blomquist, the star dash man of the Chicago delegation, looks up as a sure winner in the 100-yard dash. He should be a factor in the 200-yard dash, too. Kaiser is on the job, should carry off the plunger. The relay, though, is the plum. Kenneth's prowess, promise to be a point back. Coach Whitaker will select his

WRAITH'S COLUMN

What's Your Kick, Abe?

ABRAHAM ATTELL, in his time the greatest fighter of his weight in the ring, voices a plaintive wail from the stage of a local theater, this week, inviting his hearers to sympathize with the unfortunate condition (his own) of a fallen champion.

Apparently Abe doesn't know where his next "coffee and" is coming from; for his friends, Abe hints, went south when Kilbane defeated him at Los Angeles.

Thus, being left out in the cold world, surrounded by marble hearts, with nothing intervening between him and starvation save $20 a week salary, Abe wants one and all to know how wretched he is.

Little Coming to Abe.

Abe once took great delight in sympathizing with him and giving him every chance in the world. Fans contributed, according to his own admission, to the tune of $20,000, in the course of Abe's long term in the ring—which is a generous tip, even to a champion.

If Abe is "broke" now, it's no fault of the public.

Nix on the Maudlin, Abe.

ABRAHAM is neither in need nor deserving of sympathy; and the only credit coming to him is for his bearing. In this respect there is nothing to be said but that ATTELL WAS REALLY AND TRULY THE GREATEST OF THEM ALL. FOR YEARS.

This ought to be "sufficiency," Abe.

Abe Is Generous.

Abe makes a better hit, however, in the role of benefactor than in that of applicant. In response to a request to appear at the benefit to be put on for Jimmy Foley, Friday, at the Future City, Attell was prompt in his acquiescence. Abe will spar with Brooklyn Tommy Sullivan, the only fighter that ever knocked him out.

As appears to a better advantage on the giving than on the receiving end of a charity; and it was just the same in boxing.

When Play Is Work.

FOOTBALL players think they expend considerable energy when they take part in one hour of strenuous effort in a game. But the college sport is merely child's play compared to the endurance needed to compete in a "curling" bonspiel, or tournament.

Curling is not a sport for barbers.

Sutton Takes Off Weight in Preparation for Cue Match With Hoppe Tonight

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Willie Hoppe and George Sutton have put the finishing touches on their training for their match for the 18.2 ball title at the Hotel Astor tonight. Hoppe, the champion, is confident of retaining his title, and Sutton is equally confident of defeating the young title holder.

While Hoppe is favored as the likely winner of the contest, there are many billiard followers who think the veteran will defeat him. Sutton has been showing great form in his preliminary work, and his friends declare he is as good a player now as when he was a title holder.

Sutton has taken off much weight since he began his work for the match, and this, experts believe, will result in his making a better showing than he has in recent contests.

Quartet from Heath, Laubis, Bartels, Hall, Murphy and Sherman, and any four of them should put up a great fight. With Laubis, Murphy, Sherman or Bartels and Heath on the job, the local club will make Chicago with Hunsack, Rawleigh, Hanson and Harless as some.

The new state of mind, which is a soul like the land of the living, will be introduced for the first time at the cherry diamond and much interest will be manifested in this event. In late rains the swimmers are allowed to use only one hand in carrying the ball, while only the man with the ball can be decked and he only so long as he has possession of the sphere. It does not compare as to roughness with the old game of pool, at which the M. A. C. team won the national championship.

JOE CLARKE WILL BOX MCGOVERN IN PLACE OF ROBERTS

Welshman Is Outpointed by Gene Delmont in Contest at Memphis.

Monday's Fight Results.

GENE DELMONT, Memphis, got referee's decision over Stanley Roberts, Wales, eight rounds, at Memphis, Tenn.

Champion Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland easily won from Eddie Moy, Allentown, Pa., in six rounds, at Philadelphia.

"Porky" Flynn, Boston, knocked out George Rodel, the Boer, in the fourth round of a 10-round bout at New York.

"Peanuts" Scheiberl of Milwaukee shaded Chip Murphy, Indianapolis, in 10 rounds at Milwaukee.

Ritchie Mitchell, Milwaukee, won from Dick Loadman, Pittsburgh, 10 rounds, at Milwaukee.

Kid Lewis, the English featherweight, stopped Paul Tili of France in twelfth round of a 20-round bout at London, England.

Knockout Mars, Cincinnati, won from Cal Delaney, Cleveland, 10 rounds, at Cincinnati.

Joe Clarke of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., will face Benny McGovern tonight in the feature contest of the Future City Athletic Club's weekly bill. Stanley Roberts of Wales had been scheduled to fight McGovern, but his defeat by Gene Delmont induced Matchmaker Sullivan of the local club to make an eleventh-hour switch.

Clarke is the boy who knocked out Roberts his first and only appearance in this city. He is a sturdy, rugged boy, and apparently is not strong on the science of the game, save that he knows how to get in and land one of his famous wallop now and then.

He was originally matched with McGovern, but fell ill and Roberts was given the contest.

Two preliminaries have been arranged. Dale Gardner and Paddy Carroll will go on in one, and a rattling good bout is expected from this affair.

O'Connor Turns Down Fed Offer to Join Cards

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Feb. 8.—Catcher Patrick F. O'Connor today announced that he has signed with the St. Louis Nationals for next season.

He says he turned down offers from two Federal League clubs because the Federals would not guarantee what they promised.

O'Connor was drafted by St. Louis from Kansas City, where he has caught for three years. He was a member of the Pittsburgh team when they won the world's championship in 1928.

ONLY TWO TIGERS HAVE YET TO SIGN CONTRACTS

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 8.—The signed contract of Delmar Baker, a recruit catcher from the Lincoln, Neb., club, was received today by President Navin of the Detroit American League baseball team. All of the Detroit catchers have now signed.

Excepting Pitcher Willett, who went to the Federal League, only two veterans have not accepted terms for 1934. They are Outfielder Sam Crawford, now with the players making a trip around the world, and Del Gainer, first baseman.

Cuba Go South, Feb. 18. The Cuba will start for their training camp at Tampa, Fla., two days later than the Browns, who go South Feb. 14. Every man will train near the Broward, who go to St. Petersburg. Just across Tampa Bay from Tampa. A series between these teams has already been arranged.

Announcement has been made that the Federal League schedule will be worked out until March 10. Lloyd Rickard, secretary of the league, is now working on the schedule.

Garry Herrmann has very generously given Hiner Brown his unconditional release. Brown is now at liberty to go to work for the Feds and do his three-fingered worst.

Abe Attell has got it a new job, yet. His present occupation is polishing up old chestnuts at a local theater and the funny part of it is they say he gets regular money for it.

Abe's little recitation, "It ain't what you wuz, it's what you is," would melt the heart of a baseball magnate.

Ad Wolgast May Meet Leo Kelly at National Club

National A. C. Angling to Arrange to Show the Former Lightweight Champion.

Ad Wolgast vs. Leo Kelly is the boxing match Frank Bishop of the National Athletic Club would like to announce for Feb. 23, at the Coliseum here. The National A. C. is now in correspondence with the former lightweight champion.

Kelly made such a good showing against Freddie Welsh, although beaten, that his friends figure he would do better against a boy of Wolgast's bore-in style.

If this match falls through, Freddie Welsh and Jack Britton may be matched. Negotiations had been started for a contest between Jimmy Duffy and Welsh, but reports from Buffalo indicate that Duffy is not in shape to go on that date.

Federals Will Enjoin Barber Cole, Should He Jump Back to Yankees

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—The Federal League will take legal action to prevent Leonard Cole's playing with the New York Yankees, should he sign a contract with that club, Manager Tinker of the Chicago Federals announced today.

Tinker claims Cole's services as he holds a contract signed by the barber pitcher, in which he agreed to play with the local team.

Federal League officers are confident they can induce the courts to enjoin Cole and Catcher Killefer, who repudiated his contract with Tinker's team, from playing ball with any other league.

MISSOURI FIVE CRIPPLED FOR SERIES WITH PIKERS

COLUMBIA, Mo., Feb. 8.—Missouri U. will present a crippled lineup tomorrow night when the Tiger basketball team opposes Washington U. in the first game of the championship season. Capt. Taft has been declared ineligible because of the violation of the A. A. U. rule to the Missouri Valley code, while Brodie is out on account of a knee injury. The probable lineup of the Tigers will be: Ward and Goodman, forwards; Bernst, center; Cook and Ralston, guard.

Knockout Mars Shades Delaney in Ten Rounds

Cincy Feather Whips Kilbane's Sparring Partner and Is Matched With Scheiberl.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 8.—Cal Delaney of Cleveland, Champion Johnny Kilbane's sparring partner and held apparent to the featherweight title, ran into a fighter here last night in Knockout Mars, the local featherweight sensation. Mars had a clear lead in nine of the ten rounds.

In the first round Delaney had a slight shade over the local boy, but after that Mars sailed into him and outboxed him all the way. Delaney was entirely at sea with Mars' delivery and didn't land half a dozen good blows.

Mars was matched with Peanuts Scheiberl, the Milwaukee sensation, and the winner will go after Kilbane in an effort to wrest the featherweight title from him.

"Roll Their Own"

Millions of men, of all sections, classes and occupations, smoke "Bull" Durham in fresh, fragrant, hand-made cigarettes because these wonderfully satisfying cigarettes appeal to a distinct type of men the world over—the red-blooded, strong-bodied, self-reliant type that dominates in every calling and in every clime.

GENUINE
"BULL" DURHAM
SMOKING TOBACCO

"Enough for forty hand-made cigarettes to smoke for a week"

Approximately 12 BILLION cigarettes rolled from "Bull" Durham in a year—as many as all brands of ready-made cigarettes in this country combined—proves that the majority of experienced smokers prefer to make their own cigarettes to suit themselves, and roll them, fresh and fragrant, from "Bull" Durham tobacco.

Cigarettes, hand-made from this rich, ripe, mellow tobacco have a fresh fragrance and satisfying flavor that afford lasting enjoyment.

Get a sack of "Bull" today and "Roll Your Own."

$2,500,000 PARK IMPROVEMENT UP BEFORE COMMITTEE

Councilmen and Delegates to Fix Items of a Proposed Issue of Bonds.

DAVIS, ESTIMATES NEEDS

Commissioner Plans Park on South Side to Correspond With Fairground.

Plans for extensions and improvements of the park and playground system, to cost $2,500,000, will be considered by the joint Conference Committee of Council and House, which will meet Wednesday afternoon to fix the items of a proposed bond issue for various municipal purposes. Councilman Mehan is chairman of the joint committee.

Dwight F. Davis, Park Commissioner, has presented to the committee his estimate of the needs of the park department which he believes should be provided for through a bond issue. The items of his proposal are:

Shelter houses, stables, boat houses and other buildings in parks, 30 items, $45,000; complete ground shaping of existing parks, $25,000; five new playgrounds, with buildings and improvements, $75,000; South side park to correspond with Fairground, $750,000; swimming pools and public baths, $250,000; total, $2,500,000.

The locations for the playgrounds have not been selected, but it is intended that most of them shall be east of Grand avenue. Of the city's present area of 240 acres for parks and playgrounds, less than 150 acres are east of Grand avenue. No definite location for the South side park to correspond with Fairground has been chosen, but the plan is to give it a central location for that part of the city, and to make its chief attraction a swimming pool of equal size with the Fairground pool.

Figures to show that St. Louis has fallen behind other cities in park and playground extensions have been presented by Davis to the committee. St. Louis has spent $1,000,000 on parks in 25 years, he says, while other cities, some of them much smaller than St. Louis, have spent $1,000,000 or more a year on parks.

Davis' argument is that playgrounds keep children out of mischief and improve the public health, and that they have become essential supplements of the public school system.

No Shelter on Playgrounds.
St. Louis now has 18 playgrounds and three public baths. Four of the playgrounds are in the city and four more are on leased ground, which could be reclaimed for private use whenever the owners may desire to put up a building. None of the playgrounds has a completed shelter building for the children, and it is planned to put up such buildings, to cost $10,000 each. In Chicago playgrounds the shelter buildings cost $5,000 each.

According to figures quoted by the Park Commissioner from the Playground and Recreation Association of America, St. Louis is twenty-third among the 51 principal American cities in its per capita expenditures for recreation, and 71 other cities have a larger acreage of recreation grounds than this city.

The park bond issue proposal, if approved by the Conference Committee, will become part of a total of $2,000,000 or more, which will be voted on after the free bridge bond issue election has been held. The Health Department desires $1,500,000 for city sanitarium, city hospital and Koch hospital extensions. The Sewer Department will ask for $4,000,000 or more for new construction. For the new industrial school, municipal garage plant, asphalt plant, new city dispensary and new morgue, a total of $1,700,000 will be asked. The Street Department estimates its need at $500,000, chiefly for a central yard with switching facilities.

PAROLE REFORMATORY YOUTH IS SENTENCED

John Bennett, Who Killed Newsboy, Gets 18 Months for Theft of U. S. Property.

John Bennett, 20 years old, who four years ago shot and killed a newsboy at Eighth street and Washington avenue, and served a term in the Booneville reformatory, was sentenced to 18 months in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth by Judge Dyer Monday.

Bennett was charged with the theft of Government property. After a jury had been impaneled, he withdrew his plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty. Bennett and Harry Guyot, another youth, were charged with stealing a value from a mail clerk in the Union Station yards. The value contained rubber stamps and other Government property. Guyot was sentenced to two years Oct. 10, 1913. Bennett had pleaded he did not take the value, although he admitted being with Guyot.

For the shooting of the newsboy four years ago, Bennett served 18 months and then was paroled.

ASHES MAILED OVER SEAS

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 3.—A unique use of the parcel post was made by friends of the late Frederick Heist of McKeesport, yesterday. His body was cremated and the ashes, packed securely in a strong wooden box were started on their way to Reinheim, Germany, Heist's former home, by parcel post. The parcel, believed to be the first of its kind sent in this country, carried U. S. postage.

See St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Feb. 3, 1914, for details.

A Clever Buying Coup Brings 500 Women's & Misses'

Clever New Spring Skirts at $3.35

Four of the Spring Model Skirts at $3.35.

The details of how this prize lot of new Spring Skirts was captured is interesting but not so much so as are the Skirts themselves.

They come from a maker prominent as a style originator & known for the splendid tailoring of his garments. The newest Spring modes, such as the peg-top, new tier effects & the front draped ideas are included (four of the models being illustrated herewith).

Materials from which these Skirts have been made are matelasse, pure worsted novelty fabrics, plaids, serges & dark checks & are such quality as would retail regularly at $1.25, $1.50 & $1.75 a yard. The newest shades of Spring are shown as well as black.

With a strong vogue for separate Skirts coming this Spring this sale presents wonderful saving chances in very modish skirts, bringing accepted styles at about the cost of material alone, at...

"I believe," said the Mayor's Dispatch reporter, "that it would be a good thing, if the men of the city could be proved it. The more I can better it looks. But I am a little better it will get the same would be necessary to put a ment through."

At a meeting of the Ways and Means Committee of the Commercial day night, the proposal was and it was decided to defer interviews afterward, none
